Sharon Quigley-Kulawiak Joins OSG Statement Services
Leading Transactional Document Company Expands Credit Union Division

ENGLEWOOD, NJ – April 23, 2012 - OSG Statement Services (OSG), a leader in the presentment and distribution of transaction documents, announced that it has hired Sharon Quigley-Kulawiak as a district manager for its Statement Services Division. Kulawiak will expand OSG's credit union team and its efforts in the Northeast with responsibility for generating new business.

"OSG has made significant strides in growing our credit union presence," said Ron Whaley, chief revenue officer of OSG. "We recently unveiled our new Branch@HOME statement solution that will allow credit unions to transform the member statement into an extension of their branch. With the addition of Sharon, we can bring this exciting product to a larger customer base. In addition to her extensive industry knowledge, Sharon has a great reputation and many strong relationships."

Kulawiak has more than 12 years of experience in sales and eight years of experience in the credit union space. Prior to joining OSG, she was in the Information Services Department at The McGraw-Hill Company and a sales executive at Fiserv. Kulawiak earned her bachelor's degree in business management from Lock Haven University.

"I am very excited about joining OSG" says Quigley-Kulawiak. "The company is now celebrating 20 years in business, and is well positioned to lead the financial services market with their advanced technology and top-notch customer service."
